EGG YOUR HOUSE

Twice the night before Easter & outside your house, not a squirrel was running, not even a mouse. All the eggs would be hidden, in the yard with care, in hopes all the kiddos would soon know where. Volunteers were thinking aloud in their heads, where they could go to raise money instead. So we got in our cars to rest our legs, after a very full night of hiding those eggs. While out on the town, we worked hard & fast, we drove all night and had just a blast. When the yards were all done, we shouted, SCORE!

We raised enough money to go save some more!
